Call Me Hope by Gretchen Olson is an intense story about a girl who is verbally abused by her mother. Hope keeps it to herself, at times making a game out of it - if she bites her tongue, if she takes the abuse quietly, she earns "points." At first, Hope has no close friends. Her father took off shortly after she was born.

Interview: Gretchen Olson: slayground — LiveJournal

Call Me Hope, by Gretchen Olson is a great book, a book that I just couldn't put down! It is a story about an 11 year old girl named Hope and how strong and independent she is even though she has a tough life. Hope is bullied every second of every day and can't even go to her mother for help, because the bully is her mother.
