Interview with Guillaume Musso about Central Park, April 2014 Though your novels regularly feature chance encounters, the one in Central Park is without a doubt one of the most unusual. Where did you get the idea? I've had this idea of a man and a woman who don't know each other waking up handcuffed side by side in my head for a long time.

Central Park - Guillaume Musso - XO Editions

Musso is primarily a guitarist but also plays a variety of unidentified string instruments here, using overdubbing but eschewing synthesizers, samplers, or drum machines. His compositions have the kind of exoticism that Laswell would become identified with in several of his guises; indeed, it's interesting to speculate on who was influencing whom.
