VICTORIAN BRITAIN 2000-2001. A NOTE ON TEXTBOOKS. There are numerous textbooks covering the Victorian period. They are, essentially, for introductory and background reading, and should be used for that, and not as a substitute for more detailed monographs and articles. What follows is a selection, and includes some negative as well as positive recommendations!

Victorian Britain - A Note on Textbooks

In political history, it is the age of the ten-pound householder, who rose to power with the Reform Act of 1832 and took a larger electorate into partnership by the Act of 1867. Industrially, it opens with the invention of railway transport and ends with a
