Enterprise And Welfare Reform In Communist Asia

At a practical level, the social enterprise appears to be unlikely to have significant impact on the mainstay of the welfare state. However, it is suggested here that policy-makers need to take greater consideration of the 'appropriateness' of applying the social enterprise model in welfare than is the case at present.

The significance of social enterprises in the reform of ...

Anne Daguerre is Associate Professor in work, welfare and employment at Middlesex University London and an alumna of the Woodrow Wilson Center, Washington DC. The stimulus package will gut welfare reform even more than previously feared. That's the conclusion of Mickey Kaus, a moderate Democrat who now appears to regret voting for Obama. The stimulus package will reward states that promote welfare dependency, even more than federal subsidies did before the 1996 welfare reform law, and reduce economic growth. [...]
