When I read this photographic history about Forest Glen in the Images of America Series, I was both puzzled and intrigued. I was puzzled because this was not the Forest Glen I knew -- a small tree-lined suburb in Montgomery County, Maryland just north of Silver Spring that I had had substantial contact with over the years -- my daughter had gone to a school in Forest Glen for a considerable time.

9 reviews of Forest Glen Metro Station "The Forest Glen Metro station may not get a lot of respect -- it's the least-used station on the Red Line and smack in a residential neighborhood so there's not much around. However, for residents nearby (or people visiting Holy Cross Hospital) it's very convenient. A notable fact about this station is that it has no escalators -- the subway tunnel is ...

4 reviews of Forest Glen BP "Its under new management and they don't suck any more. This place is right down the road from me and I'm a car guy so it was such a bummer when they were horrible. Their gas prices used to be $0.20 higher than anywhere else in town and their mechanics combined bad customer service with amazingly high prices. That's all changed.
