I read Michael Prescott's GRAVE OF ANGELS in two sittings. When I wasn't reading, I found myself thinking about it. I was wondering how he came up with such a frightening horror of a human being in his killer, Swann. Former Carmelite nun-turned security consultant Kate Malick must protect a spoiled young star, Chelsea Brewer, from Swann.

Another winner by Michael Prescott! What made the experience of listening to Grave of Angels the most enjoyable? In addition to the usual taut suspense and fast-paced action, I loved the mystery of the main character's past. A former nun, now a security agent, Kate Malick is a superb characters with plenty of mysteries of her own. I LOVED this book!
