Hence, my date from hell. The following story is 100% true and unfortunately a good learning experience I can shove in the back archives of my mind and hopefully forget. I met Chris* on Bumble July 31st. He was from a small town about 30 minutes from my hometown. He lived on a farm and made good money at the job he worked at.

My Date from Hell - How I Got Here

But what's even more terrifying is being on a date from hell. I'm talking about the panic attack-inducing dates where you can't seem to find a way out, and you wonder if the person sitting next to you has ever been on a date before. You feel as though there's nowhere to turn, and you are sure to be scared for life from the experience.
