N 400 Interview Decision Cannot

N-400 Interview - Decision Cannot Be Made. N-400 interview was over in 5 minutes. Officer said all documentation looks great except for one traffic citation out of state. All I had is a court printout from the clerk's records showing Misdemeanor Class C - Dismissed After Deferral (this was in Texas, so apparently even a speeding ticket is a misdemeanor and considered to be a crime, which I did not know).

Out of the Memphis, TN office, I was informed that checking the "Decision cannot yet be made" box is standard practice there--usually it is in order to accumulate a certain number of tentatively approved N-400's so that a mass ceremony can be arranged at a federal courthouse. I'm guessing that the "decision" is technically made then.
