This book is full of vivid encounters, unsavoury characters and ripe language, told in a personable manner with a measure of wit. There has always been a market for this type of true crime book and Show No Fear Redux makes all the right noises, and is a fast paced compact read. To put it bluntly Carson's book is the dog's B*cks!

Show No Fear Redux a Bouncers Diary is basically an autobiography of the authors own accounts of his time as a bouncer. I have to say there is a lot more to being a bouncer than I first thought, at least to be a good one anyway. The author walks us through his teenage years when he was first introduced to karate and starting his bouncer career.

Show No Fear (Rising Goddess #1) by Tamara White

Show No Fear is an enjoyable book, and in several places the action is very exciting. Unfortunately, the main characters are 2-dimensional. Unfortunately, the main characters are 2-dimensional. Neither Gus nor Lucy drew me in, and there was little chemistry between them.

Show No Fear (SEAL Team 12, #7) by Marliss Melton

Along with non-stop excitement and heart pounding danger, Show No Fear has a tumultuous and sincere romance. Lucy is incredibly tough and Gus is fearless, intelligent, and capable. From their time in the jungle, to the SEAL's operations, to the government and guerrillas actions, Marliss Melton pens the realism flawlessly.
