Therefore, Episode IV will be 2072. I am not sure if Episodes V, VI are "corporate authorship", if so, they would expire into public domain either in 2075 or 2078 (if "authored" by LucasFilm), or 70 years after Lucas dies, which means 100% sure after 2082. The rest of the years after 1989 fall under the same rules as the corporate authorship for pre-1989, therefore Episodes 1-3 will expire 2094, 2099 and 2102.

Star Wars is of course a fictional work, so it's got that working in its favor, but the other three factors weigh so heavily in favor of a finding of fair use that this would likely be inconsequential in any hypothetical analysis. Conclusion: You don't need to seek their permission. This isn't the infringement your looking for. Move along.
