This simple yoga practice brings you back to center, reminding you that you have the power, with every breath, to connect to your heart's truth. You, my friend, have so much courage. This jungle-inspired sequence is rooted in a steady breath. Start by slowly breathing in for six counts, and out for six counts.

The reply comes swiftly in the form of an albatross and the message of “courage, dear heart.” Courage comes from the root “cor” or the Latin for heart. Courage comes from our heart, which is also the place we often associate with love. I don’t think that is a mistake, as courage and love often go hand in hand.
