Tales Of Two Cities Paris

A Tale of Two Cities is an 1859 historical novel by Charles Dickens, set in London and Paris before and during the French Revolution. The novel tells the story of the French Doctor Manette, his 18-year-long imprisonment in the Bastille in Paris and his release to live in London with his daughter Lucie, whom he had never met. The story is set against the conditions that led up to the French ...

A Tale of Two Cities - Wikipedia

Tales of Two Cities compares everyday London and Paris life in six thematic places: apartment blocks, streets, restaurants, music halls, the criminal underworld. Paying special attention to the art, architecture, journalism and literature of the period, Conlin likens the Anglo-French relationship between 1750 and 1914 to a "conversation about how to create the ideal city."
