The Temptation of the West. Andre Malraux's first major publication takes the form of an exchange of letters between a young Chinese visiting Europe and a young Frenchman traveling to China in the 1920's.

The Temptation of the West by André Malraux

The title appears to derive from André Malraux's 1926 The Temptation of the West, though I'm not sure why. Regardless of its provenience, the title (especially the subtitle) is inaccurate, and has confused better and more educated readers than I. It would more accurately be titled Essays on Strife in the Subcontinent.
