Guild Wars: Eye of the North - Wikipedia

The Eye of The North is a brilliant story combining elements of steam punk, Norse mythology and environmentalism with good old fashioned adventure. I loved the characters in this book. Emmeline is a believable hero you can really root for, and her allies - Thing, Ijimaq, Meadowmane and The White Flower gang - provide a wonderfully entertaining supporting cast.

The Eye of the North is a fantasy adventure tale intended for children in grades three through seven. The interest level would be appropriate for that range and maybe a little higher, but the reading level is too high for most third graders as it contains some fairly advanced vocabulary. It would make a good read aloud with a parent.

The Eye of the North had a cover designed by Jeff Nentrup, a US-based artist; its younger sibling The Starspun Web's cover echoes the UK edition, and in both cases the artist was Sara Mulvanny. I'm so pleased and proud with how they turned out, and I hope they'll brighten up shelves in bookstores all across North America.
