The Fabulous Sylvester The Legend

Sylvester dreamed of a world where he could be who he was on his own terms and he sprinkled magic dust on himself and made it happen. Whether hanging out with the drugged out misfits known as the Cockettes or working it on the Merv Griffin Show, Sylvester didn't compromise and he didn't phone it in either.

THE LEGEND, THE MUSIC, THE SEVENTIES IN SAN FRANCISCO. by Joshua Gamson · RELEASE DATE: March 1, 2005. The grooving story of the disco sensation, freighted with a goodly amount of cultural analysis. Gamson (Freaks Talk Back, not reviewed) is so in love with his subject that this biography of 1970s disco superstar Sylvester is in fact more celebration than study, though carefully researched nonetheless and able to unearth the occasional sociological gem.
