The Professors House By Willa

The Professor's House is a novel by American novelist Willa Cather. Published in 1925, the novel was written over the course of several years. Cather first wrote the centerpiece, "Tom Outland's Story," and then later wrote the two framing chapters "The Family" and "The Professor."

The Professor's House - Wikipedia

Published in 1925, The Professor's House is Willa Cather's seventh book. Compared to the Great Plains Trilogy, written between 1913 and 1918, it is a less satisfying read for me. Cather's prose retained its spare, clear, and vivid quality. It was at its finest when it was applied to capturing a sense of place or a state of mind.

The Professor's House by Willa Cather - Goodreads

The Professor's House (1925) is a short book with only three chapters. Now that I read the book I recognize it as three pieces written separate and apart from one another. The second chapter, "Tom Outland's Story," stood alone for many years as an unfinished work.
