What the Bible says about God's Word as Treasure. (From Forerunner Commentary) Proverbs 2:1-6. God's Word is like His other creations. Like air, it too has multi-faceted uses. In fact, it seems as though its uses are inexhaustible. It does not matter whether one lives in the time of Abraham, Moses, David, Ezra, Christ, or now.

What the Bible says about God's Word as Treasure

The word for " hid " or " store " is actually " treasure " in the original Hebrew (the language by which the Old Testament was written). What a powerfully profound thought! The Psalmist is actually casting a vision for the necessity of treasuring God's word SO much in our hearts, that it actually leads to less sin in our lives.

In Proverbs 2 the wisdom from God's Word is portrayed as Hidden Treasures. The more time we spend in His Word, the more treasures we find. The greatest treasure we can find is a personal knowledge of Jesus Himself, "in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." Colossians 2:3

Hidden Treasures

God permitted them on many occasions to possess the treasure they found after an expedition (Deut. 20:14b). In light of this background, we can see that the Word of God is described in today's passage as nothing less than a great treasure. The psalmist remarks that he rejoices at the Lord's Word "like one who finds great spoil" (v. 162).
