This guide was developed specifically for true solo play. While I don't think Roland is the best investigator for true solo, especially in the forgotten age, I believe his card pool and statline are very straightforward and easy to pilot. Mostly, however, I just really like the way his name sounds and his aesthetic.

Solo adventuring, or simply soloing, refers to the way of a player to achieve questing or other in-game tasks alone, without implying oneself into a party. In World of Warcraft, soloing is a mandatory process at early levels (usually below 10), designed to accustom the player to WoW gaming experience. Quests above that level are somewhat suggestive of grouping (which is especially true for those ...
