George Martin. "You Never Give Me Your Money" is a song by the English rockband the Beatles. It was written by Paul McCartney(though credited to Lennon-McCartney)
and documented the financial and personal difficulties facing the band. The song is the

This song was created from fragments of four unfinished songs because The Beatles had a lot of song ideas by 1969, so, they could sometimes combine them. "You Never Give Me Your Money" was written to reflect the band's business and personal problems because they had to handle their own financial affairs after their manager died.

The song was about Klein and his attitude. Always telling them how much they were worth but never handing over cash...just money figures on “funny paper.” This song was the first song in the medley. It is actually 3 short songs into one.
